

Basic Detail Report

Pretendians

Date

2024

Primary Maker

Hayden Haynes

Medium

Moose and white tail deer antler, marine shell, wood, quartz, red acrylic, black glass, leather dye, stove polish, and enamel paint

Description

Created primarily with wooden beads and antlers from deer and moose, small painted and stained wooden beads alternate colors on a string to form a necklace. In cubes, resembling alphabet blocks, are letters spelling out the word "Representative" separated by smaller red beads engraved with letters spelling out "Pretendian". The pendant of the necklace is a figure of a man with dark skin, Native-style moccasins, and an American flag shirt with white pants decorated with a stylized bird in black. He holds a jack-o-lantern in his right hand, as if trick-or-treating. In his left, he holds a red mask. Separated from his body by a string of beads that matches the rest of the necklace, the figure has a ghostly white, pinched face, with short brown hair severely parted to one side.

Dimensions

5 1/2 x 2 in. (14 x 5.1 cm)