

Basic Detail Report

If the woman in the wagon was scared to death at the sight of the prairie, I surely had cause to be afraid; but I was not. I was uplifted.

Description

A young couple rides on a covered wagon pulled by two animals across a green and yellow prairie. The woman, her face bathed in sunlight, clutches a white handkerchief to her chest as she stares into the distance. The shadowed man to her right sits with his elbows on his knees, staring off into the cloudy blue sky.
