

Ancient Elder Figure / Pueblo Revolt 1680 / 2180 Series

Date

2012

Primary Maker

Ortiz, Virgil

Medium

polychrome ceramic

Description

Ancient Elder Figurine part of "Pueblo Revolt 1680/2180" series; large black and white figure; geometrical pattern /design throughout; sun ray headdress; black lips; alien-like eyes; curvy-like design on cheeks and neck; three protruding cylinders on each shoulder and back, with different symbols on each - crescent moon on proper left shoulder, swirls on proper right shoulder, and snake head on back; circles down each arm under amulets; vertically-striped design on torso with amulet in middle; holds striped, spherical object in both hands in front of stomach; very narrow stomach; triangular design on skirt, which opens in front; two ridge shapes on proper left side - possibly part of dress; three symbols/circles down spine; "X" mark above proper right knee; wears black boots with white ties to knees; hole at bottom.

Dimensions

20 × 7 1/2 × 2 in. (50.8 × 19.1 × 5.1 cm)